Amendment No. 1

AMEND Senate Bill No. 117 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 49, Chapter 50, Part 16, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Adrenal crisis" means a sudden, severe worsening of symptoms associated with adrenal insufficiency, such as severe pain in the lower back, abdomen or legs, vomiting, diarrhea, dehydration, low blood pressure, or loss of consciousness;

(2) "Adrenal insufficiency" means a hormonal disorder that occurs when the adrenal glands do not produce enough adrenal hormones;

(3) "Nurse practitioner" means a nurse practitioner licensed under title 63, chapter 7; and

(4) "Physician" means a physician licensed under title 63, chapter 6 or 9.

(b) The state board of education, in consultation with the department of health, the board of nursing, the board of pharmacy, and the department of children's services, shall adopt:

(1) Rules for the administration of medication that treats adrenal insufficiency by school personnel trained in accordance with this section to any student on school premises whose parent or guardian has provided for the personnel the medication in accordance with subsection (e) and who the personnel believe in good faith is experiencing an adrenal crisis.

(2) Rules adopted under this subsection (b) must:

(A) Include guidelines on the designation and training of school personnel who will be responsible for administering medication; and

(B) Specify that a local education agency (LEA) is only required to train school personnel when the LEA has been notified by a parent or guardian that a student in a school of the LEA has been diagnosed with adrenal insufficiency.

(1) Each local education agency board shall adopt policies and procedures that provide for the administration of medications that treat adrenal insufficiency.

(2) Policies and procedures adopted under subdivision (c)(1) shall be consistent with the rules adopted by the state board of education under subsection (b). An LEA board shall not require school personnel who have not received appropriate training to administer medication.

(d) Educational training on the treatment of adrenal insufficiency, as required by this section, shall be conducted under the supervision of a physician or nurse practitioner. The training may be conducted by any other health care professional licensed under title 63 as delegated by a supervising physician or nurse practitioner. The curricula shall include, at a minimum, the following subjects:

(1) General information about adrenal insufficiency and the dangers associated with adrenal insufficiency;

(2) Recognition of the symptoms of a person who is experiencing an adrenal crisis;

(3) The types of medications that are available for treating adrenal insufficiency; and

(4) Proper administration of medications that treat adrenal insufficiency.

(e) A person who has successfully completed educational training in the treatment of adrenal insufficiency as described in subsection (d) may receive from the parent or guardian of a student a medication that treats adrenal insufficiency and that is prescribed by a health care professional who has appropriate prescriptive privileges and is licensed under title 63, as well as the necessary paraphernalia for administration. The person may possess the medication and administer the medication to the student for whom the medication is prescribed if the student is suffering an adrenal crisis in an emergency situation when a licensed health care professional is not immediately available.

(f) An LEA employee administering the medication or performing healthcare procedures related to the administration of medication that treats adrenal insufficiency and a board of education authorizing the administration of medications or the performance of healthcare procedures related to adrenal insufficiency shall not be liable in any court of law for injury resulting from the administration of such medication or the performance of any related healthcare procedure if administered or performed in accordance with this section.

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 10-7-503, is amended by deleting subdivision (a)(7)(A) and substituting instead the following:

(i) A governmental entity shall not require a written request or assess a charge to view a public record unless otherwise required by law. Requests to view public records may be submitted in person or by telephone, fax, mail, email, or via internet portal.

(ii) A governmental entity may require a request for copies of public records to be:

(a) In writing;

(b) On a form that complies with § 10-7-503(c); or

(c) On a form developed by the office of open records counsel.

(iii) If a governmental entity does not require a request for copies to be in writing or on a form in accordance with subdivision (a)(7)(A)(ii), then a request for copies of public records may be submitted as provided in subdivision (a)(7)(A)(i).

(iv) If a governmental entity requires a request to be in writing under subdivision (a)(7)(A)(ii)(a), the governmental entity shall accept any of the following:

(a) A request submitted in person or by mail to the records custodian;

(b) An email request submitted to the records custodian; and

(c) A request on an electronic form, if available, online that can be electronically submitted to the records custodian.

(v) If a governmental entity requires that a request for copies of public records be made on a form as provided in subdivision (a)(7)(A)(ii), then the governmental entity shall provide such form in the most expeditious means possible when the form is requested.

(vi) A governmental entity may require any person making a request to view or make a copy of a public record to present a government-issued photo identification, if the person possesses photo identification, that includes the person's address. If a person does not possess photo identification, the governmental entity may require other forms of identification acceptable to the governmental entity.

(vii) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary:

(a) If a person makes two (2) or more requests to view a public record within a six-month period and, for each request, the person fails to view the public record within fifteen (15) business days of receiving notification that the record is available to view, the records custodian is not required to comply with any public records request from the person for a period of six (6) months from the date of the second request to view the public record unless the records custodian determines failure to view the public record was for good cause; and

(b) If a person makes a request for copies of a public record and, after copies have been produced, the person fails to pay to the records custodian the cost for producing such copies, the records custodian is not required to comply with any public records request from the person until
